In this chilly season full of windy shivers,
Sometimes silly reasons of gifts delivered,
Remember those close to you,
Whom give you so much joy,
Every grownup and children too,
Good girls and every kind boy,
Gifts of things are nice,
Gifts of being there are much better,
Let your heart not dwell in material ice,
Love is the warmest sweater.

From us in the Mystery Science Theater 3000 fanbase (Rifftrax & Cinematic Titanic too).

I wish you a safe strong Christmas Holiday with your family.

I wish you prosperity and creativity.

May you easily destroy all enemies that threaten you and all that you treasure.

Tough times are looming fast and you will need the ability to shoot well and charm the wavering.

Practice these skills for your nation will only survive with your strength in historical times of horrific peril.

Good times and God bless you all.
