
Subject: No Mas Por Favor... TI-99/4A is gone!
Posted by Anonymous on Wed, 01 Jul 1987 03:36:48 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Originally posted by: m-liu#64madonna (Micky Liu)

Article-I.D.: columbia.4768
Posted: Tue Jun 30 23:36:48 1987
Date-Received: Thu, 2-Jul-87 01:19:25 EDT
Sender: nobody@columbia.UUCP
Reply-To: x1.micky@cu20b.columbia.edu
Organization: Columbia University
Lines: 17

To all of you out there who replied to my offer, THANX! I'm almost sorry that I had only one... but I think that I've found a nice home for it in a hospital... and if that arrangement doesn't work out I already have plenty of applicants!

To the guy that couldn't send me any mail... I don't know what to tell 'ya, cu20b is a fairly old mainstay on the arpanet... And I'm sorry but my phones are unlisted...

To the guy that called my office, you must've went through a lot of trouble to get that number!

Once again thanx, and I'll be sure to let you all know when I give something else away from my 'Obsolete Computer Museum'...

Micky