"New MST3K" should last longer than New Coke because it's coming to Blu-Ray and DVD:

I've only seen a minute or so of the riffing from the show that I've seen excerpted on the Shout Factory website. I don't have or want Netflix. Netflix will sooner or later delete the episodes just like they've deleted everything else they've ever carried, but in disc form you get to keep it.

Thanks. As another non-Netflix person I've been hoping season 11 would eventually be available for purchase. I did a web search back around Christmas and couldn't find any info.

Page is now bookmarked, and I'll probably put in a pre-order when we get a little closer to release date (currently listed as April 3rd if you click the pre-order button).

For the sake of the hipsters, shouldn't it also come out on VHS?

I just pre-ordered a copy on Blu-ray. Can't wait to watch it.
Haven't seen a single second's worth of the rebooted MST3K yet.

And it just arrived this afternoon. Which surprised me because it's not even supposed to be released for another five days. But I'm not complaining - I get to watch a few new MST3K episodes this weekend.

Life is good.
