Hello Usenet!

Some nice people from the Made in Abyss subreddit's Discord have translated the first chapters of the ongoing "Made in Abyss Official Anthology - Second Layer".

The Made in Abyss Official Anthology is an official compendium of stories or strips made by third party authors and published alongside the main Made in Abyss comic, on Webcomic Gamma.

These stories are probably not canon, but some of them are quite interesting or funny, so if you are a hardcore MiA fan, you won't want to miss them!

Currently, the second season (called Second Layer) of this series is being published, and that is the one the group is translating. The first season is no longer available online, but the group has said they will try to find it and translate it too.

Chapter 3: The Abyss Digest <<https://mangadex.org/chapter/662220/1>>

The group will keep adding chapters as they come out, every 10 days!
