[JESSE works on some email on his laptop on the snack counter. The RENAMON from "Outrageous Claims" enters.]

RENAMON: Hey, how come there's nothing on your sign out there?

JESSE:[looking up] I have nothing to show right now.

RENAMON: Absolutely nothing?

JESSE: Well, there *is* a "buried title" email spam in the projector, but it's so short, I'd rather not run it on its own.

RENAMON: I insist.

JESSE: In that case, I suppose I can spare three minutes.

[Both enter theater; seating is similar to that in "Claims."]

> Subject: idle noose

JESSE: Must be a slow day for hangings.

RENAMON: Oh, starting off with a little gallows humor, I see.

> Over Night Medication

RENAMON: What over night medication?

JESSE: Good question.

> tanekaha supplicate

JESSE: Isn't that a Dragonball attack style?

RENAMON: No, you're thinking of kamehameha.

JESSE: Shran? What's he doing here?

RENAMON: Trekkie.

> satyric serotonin tinted admass

RENAMON: That's just wrong, even for random words.

JESSE: I would tend to agree.

> tenthly resultant epizoic debar carbolated soleil tantalize harken ,

>

> FDA approved druugs

JESSE: Well, at least it makes more sense than just the random words.

RENAMON: True, but what are "druugs"?

> No prior prescription required on hundreds of drugs saave up to 70%

> New products: valium,

RENAMON: For them, maybe.

> x-a-n-a-x,

JESSE: Proof that spam filters are like children. Spell a word out and they can't figure out what it is.

> diazepam (gen va1ium), levitra, alprazolam

> (gen xanax), soma (carisoprodol), fioricet (gen)

> Categoers meds that we have (which saave you up to 70% OFF):

> muscle relaxants, sleeping aids, pain relief, woman health, mens >health, sexual health, quit smoking,

RENAMON: Or better yet, don't start.

> allergies, skin care, anti depressants & much more categorized meds

JESSE: Think they have anything for bad spelling and grammar?

>

> Cheaap Offeer:

> 30 Va1ium [anti depressants] 5mg - $ Best Priice

> 30 Xa-n-ax [anti depressants] 1mg - $ Best Priice

JESSE: And that would be what, exactly?

RENAMON: Time in jail, most likely.

> 3 Cia1is [mens health] 20mg - $127

JESSE: Let's not go there.

RENAMON: Not a problem.

> 30 Phentermine [weight--loss]> 15mg - $99

JESSE: That stuff's still FDA approved? I thought it was dangerous..

> 60 Soma [muscle relaxants] 350mg - $99

> 30 Fioricet [pain relief] 40mg - $109

> 30 Cyclobenzaprine [pain relief] 10mg - $109

> 5 Via agra

RENAMON: By way of farms? Isn't that worse than the Phentermine?

JESSE: From what they've been saying on the news lately, it is.

> [sexuual health] 100mg - $139

RENAMON: Just because the ad goes there...

JESSE: What makes you think I've got something to say about it?

JESSE: Which is over now.

RENAMON: No thanks.

RENAMON: Leaving the random words behind.

JESSE: Let's just go.

[Both exit theater]

[Lobby, by snack counter]

JESSE: So...

RENAMON: Yeah.

JESSE: Anyway, thanks for dropping by. My doors are usually open. Feel free to come back later. I've got an actual feature on the way. For real, this time.

RENAMON: Thanks. I'll remember that.
