Happy summer, C= and Ami comrades,

The July 11 meeting of the Southern California Commodore & Amiga Network is cancelled, due to the on-going pandemic and restrictions at our venue, Panera Bread Restaurant in Northridge, CA.

In the meantime, I encourage all to check out the the Kickstarter for a new book from David Pleasance and Trevor Dickinson, entitled "From Vultures to Vampires". This book will fill in the period from the demise of Commodore Business Machines to today's Next Generation Amiga computers. The deadline for the Kickstarter is July 19, and you can find it at

Sincerely,

Robert Bernardo

I participated in San Francisco-Linux Users Group meeting on July 5 via a site called Jitsi Meetings. All it takes is an updated Chromium or Firefox and other browsers may work if you have a modern machine with microphone and video.

If the modern Amiga has appropriate tools this would work.
I got a used lightweight Dell E7450 used for <$300 USD to participate finding an advert. from an individual on Craig's List. You can probably find a smart(er) phone or Tablet with net connection to go to the Jitzi URL from a search engine.

bliss- still jonesing for a live meeting in person but I may not last until that is possible and the Virtual meeting is better than nothing,,,

Oh, no! If a vaccine is found, then hopefully our in-person meetings will begin in early 2021.

Truly,
Robert Bernardo
