Disney Schedule Shuffle: Mulan, Avatar, Star Wars & More!

Walt Disney Studios has just made another huge shift in release plans for both WDS movies as well as 20th Century Studios, Searchlight and Lucasfilm releases. The live-action Mulan, originally shifted from March to August, is now unset. All four Avatar sequels have shifted forward a year, with Avatar 2 now bowing at the tail end of 2022. The next three Untitled Star Wars films have also moved back a year, with the next one now set to open around Christmas 2023, four years after Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker.
