

---

Subject: Napolitano on Michigan's "Right-to-Work" Legislation

Posted by CyberkNight on Tue, 11 Dec 2012 19:18:26 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

While thousands are expecting to protest the move, Michigan Governor Rick Snyder is expected to sign legislation today that would make it the 24th "right-to-work" state in the nation.

Judge Napolitano joined Fox and Friends to decipher the issue at hand. He said, "Right now in Michigan, if you are in certain industries [...] you are forced to join the union. If you don't join the union, then the government forces your employer to deduct the equivalent of your union dues from your paycheck and give it to the union."

Full article: <http://foxnewsinsider.com/2012/12/11/napolitano-on-michigans-right-to-work-legislation-for-generations-states-have-tramp-led-on-our-first-amendment-rights/>

---