This item is only designed to answer the question raised about Tom Baker's participation in the 20th anniversary episode called the Five Doctors Who.

Several months ago, Tom Baker was in Chicago attending a local Dr. Who convention. He was on his way to Hollywood seeking employment (unsuccessfully). Baker was interviewed by someone from the Chicago Tribune about his career, and some mention was made about his personal life. Anyway, Baker was asked if he planned on appearing in the upcoming special episode of Dr. Who. Baker said that he did not intend on appearing for the special episode, and that the studio had enough clips and outtakes to satisfy their purposes.

In summary, Baker did not put in an appearance for the Five Doctors Who, and clips or outtakes were used in the episode.

'Nough said.
