There is a continuity error in "Star Wars" which, to the best of my knowledge, has been spotted by no one but me. I offer official accolades (i.e., I'll post notice of your brilliance) to anyone who can figure out what the error is.

Scene is as follows: Luke, Han, Leah, et. al., have just made good their escape from the deathstar, and destroyed the sentry ships. Han and Leah are having a conversation on the bridge of the Millenium Falcon. There is SOMETHING WRONG with this scene.

Anybody want to take a crack at it? I'll post the answer in a couple of weeks, along with suitable praise for anyone who answers it correctly. If you have a tape of SW, checking it is not cheating; the error is not obvious even while watching.
