A chess game is available from the Washington DC area user group in their public software library. They have many out-of-state members, and I highly recommend membership. The address is:

TI Professionals
3509 Runnymede Pl., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20015

Aside of regular meetings and a tidbit-filled newsletter, the group has a representative on TI-MIX's board, and gets group discounts on popular software. It is also a good clearinghouse for finding other clubs and TI connections.

Since the chess game is public domain, if you would like to upload it from me, mail to brodsky@cmu-cs-speech.arpa (BITNET via WISCVM, CSNET, CCNET, etc) or call (412)578-4336
