After posting an article asking about Unix-like utilities for a z80 running 2.1 CP/M, I recieved several suggestions. One was ZCPR3. They all said I could get it for free from many RCPM sites, but the last one around here in Portland that I know about was Chuch Forsberg's. It hasn't been around for a while. Anyone know of an RCPM site locally in the Portland area with ZCPR3? How about the next closest site?
