
Subject: Good News - Paul Weyrich, an Evil SOB, is dead
Posted by George Johnson on Fri, 19 Dec 2008 15:55:11 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Conservative strategist Weyrich dies at 66
http://www.usatoday.com/news/politics/2008-12-18-weyrich_N.h tm

By Jill Lawrence, USA TODAY

WASHINGTON - Conservatives are mourning the loss of Paul Weyrich, a savvy tactician and big thinker who drove the revival of the Republican Party after Watergate and was working on a blueprint for "the next conservatism" when he died early Thursday at 66.

[end clip ignoring Weyrich's Neo-Nazicon goals and his fake Conservative claims]

=====

Enough of the niceties, onto the facts about the evil anti-American Satanist pretending to be a Christian for the braindead suckers so he can creep in his Nazi-loving value system into America by subversion.

=====

<http://watch.pair.com/database2.html>

Paul Weyrich - CNP Board of Governors (1982; 1996); CNP Secretary-Treasurer Executive Committee (1984-85; 1988). In 1977, The Heritage Foundation employed Roger Pearson on the editorial board of Policy Review, the monthly Heritage publication. Pearson is a British race scientist who organized the Northern League of Europe and became head of of the World Anti-Communist League, the multinational network of Nazi war criminals, Latin American death squad leaders and North American neo-fascists. In 1975, Pearson organized the North American neo-fascists into an American branch of the WACL called Council on American Affairs. Roger Pearson, whose research was financed by the Pioneer Fund of Tom Ellis, is a Briton who obtained his master's degree at the London School of Economics. The LSE was founded and financed by the British Fabian Society in 1894.

"The Committee of 300 through its many affiliated organizations was able to nullify the Reagan presidency. Here is what Stuart Butler of the Heritage Foundation had to say on the subject 'The right thought it had won in 1980 but in fact it have lost.' What Butler was referring to was the situation in which the Right found itself when it realized that every single position of importance in the Reagan administration was filled by Fabianist appointees recommended by the Heritage Foundation. Butler went on to say that Heritage would use rightwing ideas to impose leftwing radical principles upon the United States, the same radical ideas which Sir Peter Vickers Hall, top Fabianist in the U.S. and the number one man at Heritage, had been openly discussing during the election year.

"Sir Peter Vickers Hall remained an active Fabianist even though he was running a conservative 'think tank.' As a member of the British oligarchical Vickers armament manufacturing family, he had position and power. The Vickers family supplied both sides in the First World War and again during Hitler's rise to power. Vickers' official cover was the University of California's Urban and Regional Development Institute. He was a longtime confidant of British Labour leader and Committee of 300 member Anthony Wedgewood Benn. Both Vickers and Benn are integrated with the Tavistock Institute for Human Relations, the premiere brainwashing institution in the world." [Coleman]

Paul Weyrich also sponsored and currently works closely with Laszlo Pasztor, a convicted Austrian Nazi-collaborator whose Coalitions of the Americas is housed as a subsidiary in the Free Congress Foundation, the political arm of Heritage Foundation. From 1993 through 1995, Heritage received a total of $1 million via Sun Myung Moon's Korea Foundation which is funded by South Korea's Foreign Ministry and is an affiliate of the South Korean government.

Weyrich works with Plinio de Correa de Oliveira's Tradition, Family & Property and endorsed Olivier's book, Nobility & Analogous Traditional Elites, on the necessity of restoring traditional Nobility & Elites to rule the world. "Sadly, most American elites are now devoted to self-interest, not to service, which is one reason why affairs here go so badly. Your book may help reawaken people to the realization that we need and can have an elite devoted to service." The Secret Story of a Cult Apologist website provides a picture of Weyrich & CNP leader Morton Blackwell with the American head of TFP, which defends cults such as Scientology.

=====

<http://www.seekgod.ca/cnp.w.htm#pweyrich>

The Free Congress Foundation board of directors include director Paul Weyrich, an ardent supporter of the Society for the Protection of Tradition, Family and Property 36 and Charles Moser, an editorial adviser to a publication that praises the Nazi Waffen SS. Weyrich, who for years has represented the political interests of the Coors family in Washington, DC, sponsors the work of a convicted Nazi collaborator, Laszlo Pasztor, a Hungarian-American who is employed at FCF. The Coors-funded Heritage Foundation co-sponsored a 1989 forum with a pro-Nazi group, the Anti-Bolshevik Bloc of Nations. SEE: Dr. David Balsiger

In 1977, The Heritage Foundation employed Roger Pearson on the editorial board of Policy Review, the monthly Heritage publication. Pearson is a British race scientist who organized the Northern League of Europe and became head of the WACL, the multinational network of Nazi war criminals, Latin American death squad leaders and North American neo-fascists. In 1975, Pearson organized an American branch of WACL called the Council on American Affairs. Roger Pearson's research was financed by the Pioneer Fund of CNP's Thomas F. Ellis. It is about racism, eugenics and 'master race' swill.

=====

http://www.gossip-boy.com/Patrick_McGuigan.html

[clipped]

THE CNP

Weyrich began governing a group he co-founded with Left Behind writer Tim LaHaye called the Council of National Policy in 1981, the year after he employed McGuigan, who became a member of that group as well. Besides his "End of Days" literature, LaHaye is also known as claiming homosexuals are vile in his book The Unhappy Gays, which is considered a precursor to gay reparative programs. In the book he asked who was happier: the people who accepted gays or the people who practiced Biblical capital punishment on gays.

The CNP is referred to as the who's who of the religious right that prefers to do its business with as much secrecy as possible. Mark Crispin Miller, a media critic with New York University, claims the CNP is a "highly secretive theocratic organization -- what they want is basically religious rule."

The CNP is considered a dominionist umbrella group. Goals of the dominionists include infiltrating government entities like state legislatures, the media, and putting plants within groups they consider to be the enemy, like LGBT organizations, in order to gather intelligence and create chaos.

During Apartheid in the 1980s, the CNP assigned member Richard Bott, chairman of Bott Radio - a string of fundamentalist gospel stations, to use his Christian radio influence in order to spread pro-Apartheid propaganda in the United States for the South African white ruling class. Bott, using funds supplied by the South African government and Joseph Coors, began a misinformation campaign in this country to convince citizens that things were just fine in the country and the blacks were doing well under Apartheid. Attempts to convince Congress to not place sanctions on South Africa failed and Apartheid soon dismantled under growing international pressure. Anti-apartheid activist Nelson Mandela, who was vilified by Richard Bott in frequent radio shows, was released from prison and became South Africa's first democratically elected president in 1994.

[skipping down]

WEYRICH'S MANIFESTO

The Integration of Theory and Practice has been called by Theocracy Watch "Paul Weyrich's Training Manuel and a manifesto for dominionism." Katherine Yurica of The Yurica Report says it promotes using deception, divisiveness, and misinformation in order to allow conservative evangelicals to gain and keep control of seats of power in the government of the United States.

Some Excerpts:

Our movement will be entirely destructive, and entirely constructive. We will not try to reform the existing institutions. We only intend to weaken them, and eventually destroy them. We will endeavor to knock our opponents off-balance and unsettle them at every opportunity. All of our constructive energies will be dedicated to the creation of our own institutions.

We will use guerrilla tactics to undermine the legitimacy of the dominant regime.

The manifesto states that the takeover process will occur in three stages: developing a "highly motivated elite able to coordinate future activities," developing "institutions designed to make an impact on the wider elite and a relatively small minority of the masses," and transforming "the overall character of American popular culture.

Weyrich wrote a sterling endorsement on the book jacket of Nobility and Analogous Traditional Elites in the Allocutions of Pius XII: A Theme Illuminating American Social History. The book is considered a must read for those in neo-confederate, Christian Identity, and white supremacy circles, who wish to bring back the glory days of slavery and an elite class of nobility overseeing the lives of everyone else. This is considered very much in line with the first stage "highly motivated elite able to coordinate future activities" of the dominionist movement.

Subject: Re: Good News - Paul Weyrich, an Evil SOB, is dead
Posted by Doug Elrod on Fri, 19 Dec 2008 22:45:13 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Whew! I thought you said Paul CHAPLIN there for a moment. He was kind of devilish in "Santa Claus", though....

-Doug Elrod (dre1@cornell.edu) :-)

"I'm here to eat candy canes and kick ass.... And I'm all out of candy canes!" -Krusher Kringle

P.S. Happy Holidays, everyone!

Subject: Re: Good News - Paul Weyrich, an Evil SOB, is dead
Posted by George Johnson on Sat, 20 Dec 2008 15:19:45 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

"Doug Elrod" <dre1@cornell.edu> wrote in message news:fda23765-ebf4-4a22-b49d-53bf70749b38@k1g2000prb.googlegroups.com...

- > Whew! I thought you said Paul CHAPLIN there for a moment. He was
- > kind of devilish in "Santa Claus", though....
- >
- > -Doug Elrod (dre1@cornell.edu) :-)
- > "I'm here to eat candy canes and kick ass.... And I'm all out of
- > candy canes!" -Krusher Kringle
- > P.S. Happy Holidays, everyone!

Paul Chaplin has a distinguished a long career bringing joy and entertainment happiness into many homes across the world. Paul Chaplin's works are a light of goodness that shines brightly for all to bask within. He is a worthwhile wonderful person whom shall be underappreciated by the masses in his lifetime because the far too much of the population has become demented fools who imagine that American-Taliban types like Sarah Palin or Pat Robertson to be "good folks".
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Paul_Chaplin

Paul Weyrich sadly seemed to only find joy in the suffering of others and acted as a cocaine-money-launderer which enabled hateful folks to murder innocents, to terrorize plus torture the citizens of quite a few nations, and to corrupt the best intentions of an educated society to govern themselves sanely plus fairly.

If you were to pile up a mountain of evil men with American-Taliban Fake-Christian "Dominist Christianity" jerks like Paul Weyrich (aside from the physical messiness of it all) and weigh it against the single moral worth of a good kind human soul like Paul Chaplin has, the result is that Paul Chaplin has simply done more good for this world in his short modest life than any 100000 jerks like Paul Weyrich. Oh the scales of "Great Examples of Humanity" differ wildly depending on whom rests on each cup, but Paul Chaplin has helped many more folks become nicer human beings just by being who he is while having the media of television spread a message of common sense along with good humor and balanced cynicism and thoughtful deductive comedic commentary writing.

Heck, the whole MST3K team are better examples of leadership and moral completeness than many of the political leaders currently holding an elected position of trust in America.

Subject: Re: Good News - Paul Weyrich, an Evil SOB, is dead
Posted by weary flake on Sat, 20 Dec 2008 17:24:53 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

"George Johnson" <matrix29@charter.net> wrote:

> gay reparative programs.

a new one. So Gays are being demanded to pay Reparations or the other way around?

Subject: Re: Good News - Paul Weyrich, an Evil SOB, is dead
Posted by Doug Elrod on Sat, 20 Dec 2008 18:08:34 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Dec 20, 11:24 am, weary flake <wearyfl...@hotmail.com> wrote:

> "George Johnson" <matri...@charter.net> wrote:

>> gay reparative programs.

>

> a new one. So Gays are being demanded to pay Reparations or the > other way around?

It's what happens when Winky decides to hold a party on the Orbit Jet!
(When Gay Nightlife meets a Malfunctioning Inertial System, WACKINESS ensues!)

-Doug Elrod (dre1@cornell.edu) ;-)
Wait a minute, where are all the SUZERAINS?

Subject: Re: Good News - Paul Weyrich, an Evil SOB, is dead
Posted by nebusj on Mon, 22 Dec 2008 15:49:31 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Doug Elrod <dre1@cornell.edu> writes:

> It's what happens when Winky decides to hold a party on the Orbit Jet!
> (When Gay Nightlife meets a Malfunctioning Inertial System, WACKINESS > ensues!)

Oh, Winky's idea of a party is sitting around playing the Palisades Parkway and drinking decaffeinated tea and eating Pop-Tarts until everyone coughs apologetically and remembers vague appointments.
Then when everyone leaves he sits in the corner chair with his hands folded on his lap and a silly grin on his face and he figures he's had a great time. In his way, he's happy.

--

Joseph Nebus
