I am having an annoying issue.

When viewing news articles at my at&t yahoo site the videos play with a black stripe vertically covering the center 3rd or quarter of the video.

I have found nothing similar Googling this issue.

It does not affect the advertisements only the news video clips.

Utube and other video are not affected only the news videos.

Any one have any ideas?

do you see it if you make the video full screen? Can you give us an example URL?
