I need some help ...

I've been looking for a Mac iici in great working condition with monitor keyboard.. mouse... cables etc.

Ive searched EBay but nothing in good working condition.

Is there another place to search for a vintage Mac?

I would like everything: monitor, unit, keyboard mouse software cables etc..
Is it in great working condition?

Here in SF

Thanks

I may have one lurking in the basement; I have a pile of various Mac
IIs but it's been a few years since I've tried starting any of them up.

Concerning batteries, the first thing I do with a newly acquired Mac is removing the Lithium-batteries when I do not use the Mac on a regular basis.

I too bought some Mac II and Macintosh Plus, SE, SE/30 with completely destroyed main boards due to leaked or exploded batteries.

The other point is the risk of fire especially with the larger Lilon's of Laptops (MacBooks ...) I keep these in a 40 to 60% capacity range and and store them outside the Laptop if possible.

There's one in the pile, don't know if it works or not--have to dig out the RAM from my boxes of packed up stuff as it's been removed from that particular system.
