New LEGO Star Wars Animation Series Announced!

Creators Bill Motz and Bob Roth are at it again and have delivered what looks like another fresh, hilarious and emotional journey through the Star Wars universe. Using their own unique brand of storytelling, they have flipped Star Wars on its ear, again, and managed the impossible. By giving us another vantage point from which to view this very familiar galaxy, they redefine the rules by firmly implanting themselves in the "canon adjacent" space.

LEGO Star Wars All-Stars is a new Star Wars adventure that spans across all your favorite eras bringing together all your favorite characters from a galaxy far, far away!

Featuring Han Solo, Lando Calrissian, Chewbacca, Leia, Ackbar, BB-8, Finn, Rey, Kylo Ren, Rose, Pasma, Maz, and from The Freemaker Adventures, Graballa the Hutt, and Roger!

Starting this Monday on the DisneyXD YouTube channel and DisneyNOW!
