This is the kind of sequel that makes the original seem almost watchable. (So, I wonder if it's PHYSICALLY POSSIBLE to make a sequel to THIS film ;-))

Was anyone else hoping for the annoying boy to turn out to be a girl (say, Kristy McNichol, with the same haircut)? It would have provided an excuse for the annoyingness (she was just ACTING annoying, like a boy!), and also make the meta-level acting seem much, much better. Ah, well.

Some lines that made some effort to stem the tide of actors picking-up-their-paychecks:

"Wise wizard, please teach me how to run" - Tom, as Tyor, as Emo Philips

"The legendary ROPES OF CONVENIENCE!" -Crow

"Face the wrath of my GENTLE NUDGING" -Jonah

"Forming a Stockholm-syndrome-type relationship with David Carradine's legs" -Tom
